

December 26, 2024

It is a pleasure to write this letter of recommendation on behalf of Jinxuan Wang.

As a faculty member at the Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley, my most regular interactions with Jinxuan were in a course she took in Summer 2024 in which I was the instructor, "Introduction to International Business". Right from day one, Jinxuan proved to be an articulate and assertive participant, and her coursework was consistently professional, realistic, and of high quality. She was also able to establish herself as a class leader because of her ability to lead her colleagues towards new and interesting lines of discourse, and she demonstrated a strong ability to work in a group environment.

Through my observations of Jinxuan both inside and outside the classroom, I find her to be a motivated person who possesses maturity, potential, and character. I hope you will give her your utmost consideration.

Sincerely,

Dan Himmelstein
